Discover Bridgeport Art
NOVEMBER 12-15, 2015
www.bridgeport-art-trail.org

Letter from Mayor Bill Finch

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to the Bridgeport Art Trail, a wonderful showcase of our city's thriving arts and culture scene. Creativity is in Bridgeport's DNA. We're the home of big thinkers like P.T. Barnum, Elias Howe, Igor Sikorsky and Gustave Whitehead. They harnessed their creative energy and helped reshape the world around them. Today, we continue to promote creativity in Bridgeport and are creating an environment for artists to succeed and thrive.

I'm proud to support Bridgeport Arts Fest, a weekend-long celebration of local and original art, artists, crafters, community organizations and performers; Downtown Thursdays, a concert series featuring local bands and musicians that enlivens summer evenings, and the Mayor's Neighborhood Arts & Heritage Grant Program which provides seed money for local arts projects. These three initiatives have helped energize our local artists.

The Bridgeport Art Trail map is an excellent tool to illustrate the proliferation of our arts community: From our revitalized Downtown neighborhood, the hub of the Park City's arts and cultural scene where you'll find Read's ArtSpace, City Lights Gallery, Barnum Museum, Bijou Theatre, the Housatonic Museum of Art to the West Side, home of The NEST Arts Factory and the Klein Memorial Auditorium, to the East Side where you'll find, the 305 Knowlton Street Artists Studios and in the East End, American Fabrics Arts Building.

I encourage everyone to use your copy of the Art Trail map all year-round and discover Bridgeport's creative side.

Sincerely,

Bill Finch

BRIDGEPORT BAROQUE: at the NEST Arts Factory featuring world renowned harpsichordist J. Owen Burdick, a graduate of Julliard who made his debut at Carnegie Hall in 1978. From 1990-2008 he was the organist and musical director of Trinity Church on Wall Street in NYC. His symphonic poem, Phoenix, honored the literal "rising from the ashes" of Trinity Church in the shadow of Ground Zero after September 11, 2001. Phoenix received its world premiere by the Brooklyn Philharmonic in 2004.

Burdick, who now has his studio at the NEST Arts Factory, will be accompanied by flutist Richard Wyton, from 6:00-7:00, for more info see #22.

GAMBIAN CULTURAL IMMERSION: from 5:30-9:00 at City Lights featuring the photography of Gambian high school-age girls. Come and hear Gambian experts describe the culture, enjoy a drum performance from West African drummer Waly Thaim, and sample traditional Gambian cuisine. Connecticut photographer Shelley Cryan will also be on hand to describe how she launched the program to train the girls with the skills needed to run their businesses, and how the program has impacted the community. The photo program is part of an overall after-school enrichment program run by Starfish International (<http://tinyurl.com/starfishprogram>). The event is sponsored by local nonprofit Humanity Now (<http://www.humanitynow.com/>)

Event: 10th Annual Open Studios

Saturday, November 14; 10 am to 5 pm
Sunday, November 15; 10 am to 5 pm

10 years strong, American Fabrics Arts Building (AFA) Open Studios showcases over 25 artists in their studios where the creative process happens. Held in a renovated factory building where linen and lace were once manufactured, the event has become a destination for collectors, interior designers, and art lovers alike. AFA's diverse group of artists are engaged in painting, printmaking, sculpture, quilting, jewelry, photography, ceramics, textiles, design, mixed media, and more. Every year we welcome new artist tenants, lending a fresh perspective to the event. Many artists will be offering affordable art for sale. Denyse Schmidt Quilts, Jocelyn Braxton Armstrong Ceramics, Brechin Morgan, Janet Slom, and Ulla Surland will be holding their annual studio sales. In an effort to give back to the community we love, for the third year we are supporting the Bridgeport Rescue Mission (BRM). The mission serves those in need, feeds the hungry, shelters the homeless, and helps people conquer drug and alcohol addictions. AFA will be serving as a drop-off point for their Thanksgiving Stuff-A-Truck event, giving patrons the opportunity to donate food and coats for local families in need (see event listing). Lastly, the artists of the AFA have joined together once again to donate an assortment of small works to be packed into a unique handmade tote bag from Ocheltree Design for the AFA Collector's Raffle. The bag is chock full of art lover goodies, and will be raffled for $5 a chance, with all proceeds going to BRM. There will be food trucks, including Snappy Dogs, in the east parking lot to serve our patrons from 10 am to 5 pm each day. Music and participatory performances will offer fun for the whole family. Ample onsite free parking and handicapped access.

The Bridgeport Rescue Mission will bless more than 4,000 needy families with a turkey and all the fixings, plus a winter coat for every family member who needs one. Help us to help them by bringing donations to our Open Studio event. Their warehouse is in our complex and AFA is a drop-off point. Bins for donations will be placed at both entrances. They are asking for the following donations:

- ◆ 12–15 lb. frozen turkeys
- ◆ Canned green beans, corn, peas, and sweet potatoes
- ◆ Canned cranberry sauce
- ◆ Stuffing mix and canned gravy
- ◆ 1 lb. cans of coffee
- ◆ Powdered fruit drink mixes

Bins for Donations will be placed at both entrances.

Directions to American Fabrics and Bridgeport Innovation Center:

These artist loft studios locations are just two of blocks apart and within walking distance of each other.

It's a straight line down Connecticut Ave where you will find the Bridgeport Innovation Center and American Fabrics Arts building. Use the AmFab directions to find the Bridgeport Innovation Center which is two blocks North going towards Stratford, away from Bridgeport.

By Train/Ferry: Metro North or Amtrak to Bridgeport Station. Port Jefferson Ferry to Water Street Dock (next to train station). AFA is approximately two and a half miles from the station. Taxis are available from the train station's cabstand.

Since 1989 the focus of the Bridgeport Innovation Center has been to provide a nurturing space for artists, entrepreneurs, community organizers, and small to mid-sized companies to grow and flourish. BIC leases flexible commercial spaces such as office, warehouse, storage, and sunny loft spaces perfect for artists.

The building itself possesses a rich history and is a hidden historical gem of Bridgeport's East End. The oldest of the 10 buildings within the complex dates back to 1914 and for the majority of its life it was occupied by the Weed Tire Chain Company. Due to intense competition and a changing economic landscape, the location closed its doors, and was vacant for over 20 years. Today, BIC is home to artists, entrepreneurs, business professionals, community and religious organizations, and mid-styled companies in a variety of industries.

BIC is a prime example of how Bridgeport is getting better every day. The business park has seen a flood of new business tenants move in, particularly over the last six months. Artists, BIC is the best kept secret for the lease of a variety of bright, sunny creative spaces featuring old-world architecture such as high wood beam ceilings, oak floors, brick walls, and 7-foot windows. Come check out these spaces for lease. Call Carrie at 203.333.9000 for a tour.

Parking is available on site and to the right behind the buildings. Please do not park in assigned parking spots. Parking is also available in the lot along Building 1. Please follow rules on posted signs, BIC and its tenants are not responsible for towing or traffic violations. No pets permitted.

Elevator access is available in Building 1 from the ground floor (See signs directing to its location) We suggest drop off for handicap accessibility and parking in a different location on the complex.

Event: Pop Up Exhibiting and Performing Artists Opening Reception

Saturday, November 14; 12 pm to 7 pm

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 6 pm

Visual works created by local artists will be on view in a variety of art mediums. Pop in and see photography, computer graphics, sculpture, mixed media, assemblage, painting, air brush, and pen and ink works. Artists will be onsite to discuss their creative process. Artists include: Vincent Abner, John Lawson, Vincent SC Filardi, Carole Monahan, Lys Guillorn, Gino Pisani, Stephen Sookoo, Richard Patton, Carl Bocicault, Lori Petchers, Bryant Davis, Phillip Levine, and more.

Event: Presentation and Theatrical Performances by Mighty Quinn Inc/Shakespeare Academy @ Stratford, Building #1

Saturday, November 14; 12 pm to 7 pm

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 6 pm

Shakespeare Academy @ Stratford (SA@S) is a program of the Mighty Quinn Foundation Inc. SA@S is a six-week intensive program, held on the grounds of the American Shakespeare Festival Theater in Stratford CT. The program is defined by its collaborative spirit and combines the inquiry and discipline of playing Shakespeare with the creative opportunities of contemporary ensemble theater making. The six-week intensive ends with a week of two Shakespeare plays done in repertory. The plays this summer were Henry V and Twelfth Night, and the Alumni Company of SA@S did Romeo & Juliet. The exhibit will feature video, pictures, and live performances of all three productions. mighty-quinnfoundation.org and shakespeareacademystratford.org

Event: Lori Petcher and Faith Baum's The Old Bag Project: The Art of Midlife, Building #1

Saturday, November 14; 12 pm to 7 pm

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 6 pm

Old Bags is a multi-disciplinary project exploring the experience of the aging American woman. The intention is to use art to confront conventional values. Poking fun at consumerism, and mockingly neutralizing a stale insult, older women have proudly stripped to their underwear and posed in front of the camera with shopping bags over their heads to create a provocative body of work. Books and other items will be on sale. Creators: Faith Baum and Lori Petchers. oldbagsproject.com

Event: Demand Poetry with Elizabeth Howard, Building #1

Saturday, November 14; 12 pm to 7 pm

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 6 pm

Join Elizabeth Howard, poet, journalist, and freelance writer as she presents her Demand Poetry Project. What is Demand Poetry? Elizabeth will write poems for the public based on their own ideas, memories, dreams, wishes, or ideas on the spot and on an actual classic Olivetti typewriter, the same kind of typewriter that filmmaker Martin Scorsese used to type some of his most famous screenplays. What will you ask her to create for you? elizabeth-howard.net/demandpoetry

Saturday, November 14; 12 pm to 7 pm

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 6 pm

Please join Robin Gilmore and Gerald Moore in the Gallery 1212 space as they host a gathering of artists and other cultural creatives in a celebration of art, creativity, culture, and community. Robin's Made In Bridgeport art and designs will be showcased in her newly-repurposed, upcycled studio space and showroom. Mixed-media assemblage art and art jewelry will be for sale.

Event: Jesus Villarreal presents Student Art Work, Suite 1222

Saturday, November 14; 1 pm to 5 pm

Jesús Emmanuel Villarreal, fine artist, figure and portrait painter, was trained in the academic tradition at the Florence Academy of Art. He exhibits internationally and offers figure drawing and painting workshops in his studio at the Bridgeport Innovation Center on Connecticut Avenue. Recent successes include the induction of a large scale nude to the New Britain Museum and the acceptance into the 2015 Figurativas Competition 2015 in the European Museum of Modern Art in Barcelona Spain.

His primary studio is in Brooklyn. Jesus conducts weekly drawing and painting classes in his studio at the Bridgeport Innovation Center. Bridgeport Art Trail visitors can view a sampling of his studies along with student work. For more information about classes, portraits and commissions: jesusemanuelvillarreal.com/

Musical Performances

Event: Chica Non Grata

Saturday, November 14; 2 pm

Chica Non Grata is the wife and husband duo of Julie Beman and Eric Bloomquist. Their original songs, devoid of cynicism and frequently funny, feature smart wordplay and driving rhythms. Their bass-driven sound has been described by Brian Slattery of the New Haven Independent as “a sort of Nico-meets-dark-80s pop.” It has also been met with the question “Did you just sing about chinchillas?”

Event: Lys Guillorn

Saturday, November 14; 3 pm

Lys Guillorn – voice/guitar, Peter Riccio – drums

Lys Guillorn is a singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist from Shelton CT who makes “oddly uplifting folk, blues, country-infused, acoustic, semi-electric psychedelic dark pop music.” (Geraint Jones, Comes With a Smile, UK). Guillorn released her second full-length record of original material, Winged Victory, in 2013. Her performances show off her songwriting’s twists and turns, and her sense of humor. She will be joined by longtime drummer Peter Riccio. lysguillorn.com and lysguillorn.bandcamp.com/album/winged-victory

Event: Abner, Lawson & Company

Saturday, November 14; 5 pm

Close out the evening with jazz, rhythm and blues, and classic rock performed by local artists Vincent Abner, and John Lawson and Friends.

Event: WPKN Radio Hosts Terry Hopper and Justin Shay

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 6 pm

Join in or listen to the many musical talents of Terry Hopper, as he plays electric gamelan and other sounds from around the world, including Taiko, Indian, African, and sounds of nature. Terry will also be projecting kaleidoscopic imagery and liquid light as a backdrop to his musical extravaganza. Terry is inviting the audience to participate in a “Flash Mob Drum Circle”. Justin Shay will be spinning records and exploring some of that ole vinyl in the Gallery 1212 location. Justin does an occasional program on WPKN called JMS Jams, where he likes to highlight the under-appreciated artists of the world; with a focus on soft, quiet, relaxed sounds and vibes. His DJ sets can be a random mix of whatever is grabbing his attention at the time. He loves music and making art too. You can find him on the usual social media outlets under Justin Shay.

Singer-songwriter Lys Guillorn adds her musical talents to the Bridgeport Innovation Center at 3:00 pm on Saturday, November 14. Guillorn is a multi-instrumentalist and songwriter whose dreamy, lyric-driven, and melodically interesting sound is as original as it is indefinable. For her BAT show, she will be accompanied by drummer Peter Riccio.

Event: Integral Structure Exhibition

October 13 through November 20

Gallery Hours: Monday to Saturday 12 pm to 5 pm

The Schelfhault Gallery invites you to an exhibition that explores artwork that has visible structures. The exhibition includes the possibilities of “structure” as the physicality of the art, as well as the process of it. There are a myriad of different mediums explored in the exhibition: painting; sculpture; sound works; yarn sculpture; minimalist sculpture. Exhibiting artists include: Jennifer Davies (New Haven); Geoffrey Detrani (New Haven); Jon Elliot (Bushwick); Crystal Gregory (Red Hook); Robin Kang (Bushwick); Lawrence Kenny (Bushwick); Akinori Matsumoto (Yokohama). Admission is free and open to the public. Complimentary off-street parking is available.

Gallery Director: Peter Konsterlie

The Schelfhault Gallery has featured some of the most important artists in American art, from Robert Motherwell to Red Grooms, Louise Nevelson, and Alice Neel. The gallery’s mission is to showcase mid-career and emerging professional artists for cultural and educational experiences. Located by the beautiful shoreline of the Long Island Sound, the Schelfhault Gallery is an oasis for culture and the arts.

3b WPKN Radio, 89.5FM

While studios and offices remain on the campus of the University of Bridgeport, in 1989 WPKN became an independent, non-profit corporation. Since then WPKN has been a primarily listener-supported community radio station. WPKN streams live on the Internet at wpkn.org and on Tunein and Apple. WPKN developed its own free app for Apple and Android products – WPKN Live. Archived shows are available via the website.

Programs on WPKN include live and recorded music, free-form music, news, public affairs, and spoken word. WPKN's volunteer programmers present a wide variety of music and alternative information in an eclectic mix of programming that seeks to serve in a unique and vibrant way those whose needs are not met by mainstream media. WPKN's programming mix is a cornucopia of genres and styles. From the obscure to the recognizable, it is presented by informed programmers who help listeners discover and rediscover the best in live and recorded performances.

WPKN actively participates as a media partner in many arts and cultural organizations including theaters, festivals, and events such as The Gathering of the Vibes, The Litchfield Jazz Festival, International Festival of Art & Ideas, Great South Bay Music Festival, City-Wide Open Studios, and many others. WPKN is the founder of Music Mash Record Fair held annually and scheduled for Saturday, March 5, 2016 at Read's Artspace in Bridgeport. It also hosts the Music on Film series at The Bijou Theater as well as live-remotes from area venues.

Known as the Northeast's premier music, arts, and camping festival, the Gathering of the Vibes delivers a four-day extravaganza featuring a stellar lineup each July. An all-ages, family-friendly event, this festival showcases over 40 bands on multiple stages located throughout the 370-acre beachfront venue.

5 Artists in the South End

Why wouldn't artists be attracted to the South End of Bridgeport featuring the 2.5 mile long Seaside Park located on the edge of Long Island Sound? P.T. Barnum was among the community leaders who donated the 35 acres of land for this fabulous beach, sea wall, and exquisite recreational green space designed by Frederick Law Olmstead. He also designed Mountain Grove Cemetery in Bridgeport (the final resting place of P.T. Barnum) and New York's Central Park.

info@barnum-museum.org / barnum-museum.org

Museum hours during the Art Trail
Thursday, November 12; 11 am to 3 pm
Friday, November 13; 11 am to 3 pm

Please note that the historic museum portion of the building is currently closed during disaster recovery restoration and rehabilitation and the exhibit is located in the People's United Bank gallery, adjacent to the Barnum Museum landmark.

The Barnum Museum, the last surviving establishment attributed to the extraordinary American icon, PT Barnum, was originally established by Barnum in 1891 to promote cultural heritage of Connecticut and to celebrate scientific advancements in American technology. It was intended to inspire the public to reach beyond the limits of ordinary expectations, and to see the world as a place of opportunity, knowledge, and wonder.

Barnum's story is a fascinating exploration of 19th century social, commercial, political, and industrial history, and his tale begins long before his circus enterprise was created in 1872. He was an entrepreneur, museum proprietor, Bridgeport mayor, Connecticut legislator, urban developer, community benefactor, philanthropist, temperance leader, abolitionist, lecturer and author. He was committed to the intellectual and cultural development of society, and was a voice for the pursuit of freedom and choice. His impact reaches deep into our American heritage and a full exploration of his impacts and influences are woven into the Museum story through exhibitions and layered narrative.

Stories of Barnum's vast contributions are preserved and interpreted at The Barnum Museum in downtown Bridgeport where, since 1893, it has proudly served an international audience of well over a million students, scholars, and lifelong learners. While still in the midst of a major recovery effort following a tornado strike in 2010 and hurricanes Irene and Sandy, the museum continues to be committed to the cultural, educational, and economic vitality of the greater Bridgeport area.

Admission is free. Suggested donation amounts or nominal admission fees are charged for most programs; please refer to our calendar of events for details.

Bridgeport Art Trail Hours:
Saturday, November 14; 10 am to 6 pm
Sunday, November 15; 10 am to 6 pm

The lead organization of the Bridgeport Art Trail, City Lights is a nonprofit arts organization that serves the community through art. It has attracted visitors from greater Bridgeport and the region to the downtown gallery space for 11 years. Programs are free and open to the public and reflect the interests and rich culture of the Park City. City Lights' mission is to bring together people of diverse backgrounds to experience art and exchange ideas, and to promote the Bridgeport creative community.

City Lights Outreach provides opportunities for artistic expression and self-discovery for Bridgeport youth and adults. Among our community partners are ALPHA Community Services and Bridgeport Mental Health and several Bridgeport schools. Art integration programs connect art to science to foster good stewardship and an enthusiasm to learn and apply knowledge. These programs also offer work opportunities for local artists. For more info about outreach programs in the schools and community, visit www.citylightsgallery.org

Event: Bridgeport Art Trail Bike Tour

Saturday, November 14; 9 am to 6:15 pm

Meet at City Lights Gallery at 9:00 am for registration, coffee, and a bagel. Depart at 9:30 to explore Bridgeport's hidden treasures and booming art culture.

Join Bob Halstead, local resident and Bridgeport raconteur, as he leads a tour to artists' open studio spaces along the 2015 Bridgeport Art Trail, with visits to 305 Knowlton Street Studios and the Armstrong Gallery, B:Hive, American Fabrics Arts Building, and the Bridgeport Innovation Center. Historic stops along the way will include the shuttered Palace and Majestic Theaters as well as a ride past the Victorian architecture surrounding Washington Park in Bridgeport's historic district. There will be an afternoon stop for lunch at Pantanal Restaurant & Churrascaria. The tour will end back where it began, with crisp refreshments at City Lights Gallery.

This tour will use the bicycle as a means to connect the dots of Bridgeport's flavor, history, and architecture, interwoven with the artists' adaptive re-use and repurpose of historic buildings. We will explore the long-vacant, exquisite, and historic Palace and Majestic Theaters, and discover amazing creators of new works in old buildings, all while meandering through historic and ethnic neighborhoods on bikes. Throughout the year, Bob has led several adventures across the city with the Urban Bike Tours of Bridgeport. Stay tuned (and join the event page) via Facebook: Urban Bike Tours of Bridgeport. The bike tour is free, but you will be responsible for the cost of your lunch at Pantanal.

26 Pious Bird

3142 Fairfield Avenue, Black Rock, CT 06605
203.540.5175 / piousbird.com

Event: Native, an exhibit of work by Sarah Weigand

Thursday, November 12; 12 pm to 7 pm

Friday, November 13; 12 pm to 7 pm

Saturday, November 14; 12 pm to 5 pm

Sunday, November 15; 12 pm to 3 pm

A debut collection of photographs transformed into watercolors. Sarah Weigand is a young Black Rock artist who is beginning to explore her work further at the School of Visual Arts in New York City. Her black and white photographs explore her connection with her body, her health, and nature. She then reinterprets the image through a lens of color, representing emotion, to create a corresponding watercolor. Free admission. Ample on street parking available.

Pious Bird also features the work of many other local artists and artisans: Mariya Rivera, stained glass work; Susan Tabachnick, assemblages; Peter Konsterlie, paintings; Susan Reed Allabashi, paintings; Eileen Grace, ceramic and upcycled signage; Kate Stephen, handmade jewelry; Jaclyn Podlanski, handmade jewelry; David Rosenberg, assemblage lighting fixtures; David Laurence Flynn, lighting and metal sculpture.

View paintings of Black Rock Harbor by local artist Wayne Hiller while treating yourself to a fresh and delicious homemade-style breakfast and lunch, gourmet coffee, freshly backed croissants, cookies, and muffins in the neighborhood eatery that is the family-friendly hub of Black Rock. Harborview Market has been owned by the Torres family for over 20 years in the heart of Black Rock. Along with a popular catering service, we specialize in breakfast and lunch delicacies and are loved around Connecticut for our buttery croissants and "best in state" chocolate chip cookies. Each month we feature local artists' work on our walls. In November, stop by on Saturday and Sunday for a free cookie with the secret password "Bridgeport Art".

28 Black Rock Arts Guild

Contact: Judy Noel 203.367.9759 poppanoel@aol.com

Black Rock Arts Guild (BRAG) has established a gallery space at the Burroughs Community Center. BRAG is a non-profit organization that encourages artists of all kinds (painting, photography, film, music, sculpture, dance, writing, acting, crafts) through collaboration and interaction, for the pleasure art brings both the creator and the beholder. Its programs include educational opportunities through lectures and discussion groups, creating a sense of community among the artistic and cultural organizations in our area through the artists who live, work, teach, show, and perform here. BRAG offers a forum in which the community can appreciate the arts with exhibits and community projects. We encourage sponsorship of participation in artistic activities by our business community.

Event: BRAG Member Exhibit at NEST Arts Factory

Friday, November 13; 5 pm to 8 pm

Saturday, November 14; 1 pm to 6 pm

Sunday, November 15; 1 pm to 5 pm

Members of BRAG will be exhibiting work in the West Hall Gallery at NEST Arts Factory. For more information about NEST Arts Factory, see listing #22.
